The Nickel Shopper! Bus. Opp.

Pamela's World! Hello my friends, I'm always asked, "what's your sign?" My reply would be "slippery when wet!" My other would be "Men at work!" My birthday is November 13, 1961, Scorpio. When I was 8 years old I was bitten by a Scorpion. I just looked at my mom and said "It's okay mama I'll be alright, I'm a Scorpio! Luckily I was fine! Kids always say the cutest things! One time I was at Mc Donalds with my young son and he saw the words FREE Wi-Fi. When we got home he ran in the house and shouts to his brother "They have free wives at Mc Donalds!" I said "wow that was a happy meal!" His brother replied "there's no such thing as a free wife!" I then asked my son "why do you think it says free wife?" He replied, "everyone knows the second vowel is silent!" "Duh!" How cute! Until next week, you can do whatever you put your mind to! Dream big and make it happen!
Little Sis Pamela

I could not believe my ears! Since Trump got elected people are actually wishing each other Merry Christmas!

Yes, once you pull the plug and start the swamp draining, people have good reason to be joyous this season. No more Clinton!

After passing the tax bill, Trump has been focused on getting the credit he thinks he deserves for his first year in office. His aides have held background briefings with reporters and top surrogates, arguing that Trump has accomplished more than almost any other president in his first year. We know he deserves it!

"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Well folks with this coming Monday being Christmas we can be thankful that we have made it almost to another year! This has been one hell of a joy ride! Trump is busy being Trump. The swamp is busy trying to discredit Trump. Mueller is making an attempt to find something that Trump has done so he can be impeached. The left is busy trying to get distance from all the sex scandals in Washington, D.C. and Hollywood. I can't wait to see what the New Year brings!

So on that note I will wish all a
