WOW! Trump crossed into the DMZ and then into North Korea! A total first for an American President! Why is the left trying to find fault with that action?

See, the left needs to try to undermine this grand moment! They only think it is great to visit a dictator if it is Obama going to Cuba to give Castro a happy ending!

Trump North Korea bad, Obama visits Cuba and that is grand!

From the Editor

"Side Note!"

Obama looking into N Korea

Trump in N Korea

By now you should have heard the news about our President Donald J. Trump is not only the first American President to enter the DMZ, but also crossed into North Korea. The left is screaming about how dare he shake hands with such a tyrant. How could he give credibility to a murderer? Yet when the Kenyan skidmark Barack Obama went to Cuba and kissed Castro's ass and gave him a rub down with a happy ending, everyone on the left thought that was the best news ever! We now could go to Cuba and enjoy ourselves on Rum and Cigars! Castro and his brother murdered tens of thousands of the Cuban citizens and now Obama says it is time to party! Are you kidding me. The only reason no one called out Obama was the fact that he is black. If you called him out for anything at all that automatically made you a racist and a bigot! Gotta love it!!! Hypocrisy at it's best!

Hi, everyone, Its Denise Groomer and I'm back with another Poem that my Mother wrote in 2012 titled

"PROMISES"

The promise made by rainbows, To say the storm has passed
The promise of Spring blossoms, to say Winters gone at last
The promise of morning Sunrise to say the long dark night is through
The promise of forgiveness when we've gone astray
The promise of guidance, when we've lost our way
Our lives may be so saddened, full of chaos and of stress
But the fulfillment of such promises says we are truly Blessed

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Today is July 4th, 2019. It is amazing how things have changed in the last 239 years since our fore fathers wrote the Declaration of Independence. Our nation is an experiment that was never tried anywhere else on the planet.

It says that we have rights that are given to us by the Creator and that these rights are guaranteed. The big issue with a Democracy is that once the elected representatives figure out that they can vote all kinds of neat crap for themselves the system becomes corrupted. The inherent problem is human nature. Human nature, not always being of the highest nature, is usually swayed one way or the other with the promise of wealth, booze and whores!

As you know I don't practice social and political correctness. I refuse. Our representatives hate our President for one reason and one reason only. They can't buy him.

How do you bribe a billionaire? He said he would change the way things are done in Washington and that he would end the corruption and criminal practices that have stolen our wealth for decades. All the world leaders respect President Trump. They know that he will not blink! He says how it is and that is all there is to it unless you can show him that there is a better way than what he has envisioned. At that he will smile, shake your hand and give you a pat on the back and let everyone know that it was you who came up with the plan!! He is not a person who is looking for the spotlight to only shine on him. He encourages others to be brave and step forward into their moment of glory. The Left is working to destroy our way of life. They are planing to let wet backs steal your rights and your money. They are looking at turning our nation into a SHITTHOLE like the rest of Europe. Socialism doesn't work. There is nothing free. Someone has to pay for every thing out there, one way or another. Don't let them pull the wool over your eyes!!

Happy 4th of July!!!

"Chronic Pain May Harm The Brain!"

"Depression, anxiety, sleep disturbances and decision making difficulties, which affect the quality of life of chronic Pain patients as much as the pain itself, may be directly related to altered brain function as a result of chronic Pain." Dr. Chialvo, M.D. Journal of Neuroscience. The most successful treatment of low back Pain doesn't involve any drugs for surgery! A medical doctor friend related this disturbing fact... 20% of back surgeries are successful 80% are failures. Don't gamble your health away... Chiropractic and laser therapy are very effective in relieving most back Pain problems! If you're experiencing symptoms, have been treated with little or no improvement, or want a second opinion, please call me at 909-647-6223. Don't procrastinate, let me help you. I help most of the patients accepted for care.
