RENTAL NEEDED

My wife and I are from S. Apply Valley. I am a retired house painter of 40 years, we both work part-time, non-smokers, no alcohol or drugs. We've been living on 5 acres off Deep Creek Rd. for 1-1/2 years, we would like to stay living out of town; would someone have some housing with 1 bedroom or maybe even a Mobil home or house share? Would appreciate a call from someone, will pay a finder's fee. Would like to move ASAP. Prefer Apple Valley or Hesperia for rent.

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
 August 22nd is the return of The Walking Dead! If you are not familiar with the show that is a shame. The Walking Dead is about society melting down and being over run with Zombie's. You might ask how that that would apply to your life and our nation? Well, just think of Zombie's as the new WOKE individuals that are on a vendeta to turn our nation into another socialist/communist piece of crap. They are mindless creatures, do the bidding of government and will destroy all of the people around them including family to attain the goals of the Left. In The Walking Dead, the survivors have to use all of their brain power not to become one of the Zombie's. Comfort is a thing of the past, food is scarce, medial attention minimal or non existant. Gas for cars must be scavenged from abandoned vehicles along the highway. Shelter that is safe is hard to come by. At every turn there are individuals that are the equivalent of Hyenas looking to take your belongings, including your food, your shelter, your life. In some cases they will be smooth, nice in conversation, but non the less, Hyenas. If we go into this situtation we and the world are lost. The United States of America has been the deciding factor in all the major conflicts in the last two centuries. Even though we are not perfect, we as a people have come together to bring our people and others success in life. Freedom is the one thing that most of the world really doesn't understand. Reason being, they have never been free! Our politicians are corrupt and as dirty as any third world regime. They just pretend that they are good and faithful servants of the State. These are the snakes that need to go first if we are to survive this assault on our freedom.

New guests weekly!

THIS WEEK 7/23 on TREVOR'S HAPPY HOUR our guest will be Valarie Stewart. We will be talking to Valarie about her fathers legacy. Nick Stewart (the voice of Brer Bear in Disney's Song of the South/the character Lightnin' in Amos ;n Andy TV show), who with his wife Edna Stewart, founded the historic Ebony Showcase Theatre in 1950. Nick Stewart was an African American actor who founded Los Angeles' Ebony Showcase Theater. He was born Horace Stewart in Harlem, briefly trying his luck at boxing, took to tap dancing, and later made the rounds as a stand-up comic. Stewart used various names, including Nicodemus Stewart, in a career that began in the 1930s and lasted for decades. He made his first movie appearance in 1936's Go West Young Man. The voice he contributed for the character of Br'er Bear in the 1946 animated film Song of the South lives on in Disneyland's "Splash Mountain" ride. But his life's work was with the Ebony Showcase Theater, which he and his wife, Edna, founded in 1950. The Ebony Showcase Theatre and Cultural Arts Workshop, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) non profit charity that has helped thousands of people of all ages and backgrounds from 1950 to the present.
