RENTAL NEEDED

My wife and I are from S. Apply Valley. I am a retired house painter of 40 years, we both work part-time, non-smokers, no alcohol or drugs. We've been living on 5 acres off Deep Creek Rd. for 1-1/2 years, we would like to stay living out of town; would someone have some housing with 1 bedroom or maybe even a Mobil home or house share? Would appreciate a call from someone, will pay a finder's fee. Would like to move ASAP. Prefer Apple Valley or Hesperia for rent.

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
 Here is food for thought. The world is on board with Diaper Joe Biden and VP Camel Hairass and their plan to turn us into a socialist shithole like the rest of the world. As long as the United States of America exist there will never be a One World Order. Obama was putting everything in place and Trump put the FLY in the OINTMENT. Obama thought that he would be KING OF THE WORLD. The military is being reformed into an armed group that the Left will call forward to disarm or even attack the American Citizens that they took an oath to protect. We have a new doctrine that is being put in place starting with children as young as 2 and 3 years old. What do you think the so called "Day Care Centers for working parents is about"? The Left could care less about your child. They only see a fresh mind they can reshape to believe in the "New World Order" agenda. The push is on before the elections next year in November. Here is an item that I think you should give a moment of thought to. Scientists at Columbia University have created the world's smallest single-chip system—complete wireless electronic circuits that can monitor conditions in the body. The chips, called "motes," have a total volume of less than one cubic millimeter, making them smaller than microscopic dust mites. Kind of makes me wonder what kind of games are being played with such a push to get the China Virus Vaccine? If you think that the Left gives a "Flying Rat's Ass" about you and your safety or that of your children or grandchildren you are truly a special kind of stupid. Understand this one last thought I will leave you with. "STUPID CAN'T BE FIXED!"
 God help us through these troubled times.

New guests weekly!

THIS WEEK 08/20 on TREVOR'S HAPPY HOUR OUR GUEST will be RON DeFORE We will discuss his current book "Growing up in Disneyland," a biography about one of America's beloved movie and TV stars - Don DeFore - and his son Ron's autobiography of his life growing up in a celebrity family. The book's title is a metaphor for his life and is literal, as his father was the only person to own a concession in Disneyland displaying their name, "Don DeFore's Silver Banjo Barbecue" restaurant in Frontierland.

We are BACK!

Fauci is now exposed for his experiments on dogs! Go figure? What is next, kittens?

Actually that is incorrect. Fauci did not do experients on dogs. Fauci funded the experiments on dogs with our taxes and lied about it.
