FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

I was really pleased to see that my topic for this week's editorial was handed to me on a Silver Platter. Apparently, last weeks editorial struck a nerve on one of the readers. I take it from his negativity, that he is not only a Postal Worker, but also a Union Member. I will concede that from time to time I have Typo's, misspelled words to the layman, however it does not mean that my writing is in error! I was told that I do not understand or know anything about the Government and it's workings. That all I know is what I hear on the Radio Talk Stations. Everyone is allowed his or her opinion, and I will always defend your rights to speak out, even when it is different from my own point of view. I would like to let this individual know that I will always respect his rights to his opinion. Even when I know that it is money motivating his position. Union workers have become so controlled through benefits that they don't care how much it hurts the Nation, that means you and I. I was informed how hard the Postal Workers work to get the job done. I know that this will without a doubt upset this gentleman, but, I have timed the workers at a local branch and it is pathetic on how inefficient they are. I don't know if it is lack of understanding the job? If it is time for their next coffee break? I don't know if it is because the really could care less about how long we wait in line? I personally think that it is a combination of all the above. So Mr. Postal Worker I would enjoy you proving me wrong, give me a call, and I will come and watch how effective your Branch operates. Then again, I could be wrong and you might have already retired. Maybe that's it! Is that why you have time to spell check my editorial? Also, I have 4 businesses that I own and oversee personally.

Match that, then we will be on even speaking terms!
