FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

This week I would like to take a moment to thank all the wonderful parents. I don't think that we really appreciate the sacrifices that they have made for us. Many times they are at their wits end, trying to make ends meet. They give up many personal enjoyments to make sure, that no matter how simple, we have most of what we desire. My greatest memory is about my own mother, who supported four children on $75.00 a week take home pay. She always did her best, as a single parent, to see that we had a roof over our heads, clean clothes and food on the table. We never had real vacations, but we did have really great adventures. Sometimes the best things in life come from the simple things. My mother came here from Canada before WWII and started a life for herself. She worked hard at several minor jobs to make ends meet. Her dream came true when she was accepted to the N.Y.P.D..

At the end of the war, she met my father and started a family. Things were not meant to be permanent, and she was back to working a full time job to support us. My mother passed away on March 13, 2013, at the age of 91. I hope that she knew that we understood all the personal freedoms that she gave up to see to it that we were well armed with a good education. She always supported us on our endeavors. When she retired from the phone company in 1985. My brother and I did our best to see to all her needs, so she could enjoy retirement to its fullest. Thank you Mom for always being there for us. Thank you for all the smiles and hugs. Thank you for all the lectures that we sat through. Thank you for being anything but perfect. I will miss our conversations that we had every Saturday while I was on my way to teach. I will miss you, your loving son, Carl.
