IZZY PET CARE
Personalized in home pet care
Hi my name is Isikuri Iniestra (Izzy), as a per woner I know what it takes to care for ones pets, but with such busy schedules it's hard sometimes to find the time. That's why I'm here to help! As a certified care taker I'm trained to provide all kinds of service: walking, grooming, pet sitting, transport to appointments. My years of experience is not limited to my own pets. I have worked in animal hospitals and in households dealing with a wide variety of different animals. Let me be the one to make your pet happy.

FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Syria is the new front! The Senate has a proposal in place that will allow a 60 day window with a 30 day extension for Obama to respond to the chemical warfare attacks on the Syrian People by their own government. The part that I have great difficulty with is our leaders stating that we will not tolerate the Syrian Government using Poison Gas on their citizens. Does this mean as long as they are only using traditional bombs and bullets that it is ok to kill as many women and children as you want? In my opinion, dead is dead regardless of method. Why have we not taken action due to the fact that they are killing civilians. To make a threat of action and then take weeks to debate the action we will take, really does nothing to strike fear in the hearts of the Syrian Government. It is about as effective as the parents we see in public telling their children over and over what is going to happen if they don't stop their bad behavior. The time to strike was immediate. We should have launched our missiles and then made a call right before they hit their targets to inform Syrian Leaders that they had 2 minutes to run for cover. This should have been our warning shot. Then within minutes send a second wave of missiles as a reminder that we are awaiting their answer. I for one, don't think that we can afford another war, nor can we stand by and allow this to continue. In Darfur, the number of people butchered is in the millions. We have allowed this to happen because there is no reward for stepping in. These are just poor black people with nothing to offer. We and the other powerful nations do nothing. When we take action in the Middle East, without a doubt, we are there because of the oil supply that would be interrupted effecting our pocketbooks. CALL ME!!!
