FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Will someone please tell me where I am missing the boat? A convicted murderer after being sentenced actually has the same judge perform the wedding ceremony for him and his fiancée, after the murdered man's family exits the courtroom. A convicted sex offender, raped 38 women that we know of, is going to be released in a neighborhood with children and stay at home Moms in the Palmdale area. Talk about outrage and having the system spit in your face! I know many individuals are screaming over this, but the judges and politicians could care less. The system serves everyone except the the individuals it was put in place to protect. Criminals, like politicians, have their rights. We have to treat them humanely. It is our job to make sure that they have good food, healthcare, education and God only knows what else. The only message we send is "If you are caught and convicted of a crime, your lifestyle will probably be enhanced so don't worry about what will happen to you behind prison walls, you have your rights!" To Hell with victims and their families, they are only an inconvenience that will fade away quietly into the night. Costa Rica or Belize is really starting to look better and better. Our dreams from our childhood are only a distant fantasy. We slave and toil daily to make ends meet. The bright side of this story is our Leaders are living better and higher on the hog than ever with great healthcare insurance!
