FOOD FOR THOUGHT!
 One has to live in the present. Whatever is past is gone, whatever is future is beyond one's reach, until it becomes the present. Remembering the past and giving thought to the future is important, but only to the extent that they help you make the most of your present.

FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Due to the fact that Christmas came on Tuesday this year, I am working on the editorial on Sunday to make sure that the paper hits the street on time. If you had the chance to listen to the response from the V.P. of the National Rifle Association, you would understand why the Media and the Politicians are up in arms. This man hit the nail right on the head. He called the Media and our Politicians exactly what I have called them for years. Corrupt, do nothing, sit on their fat rear ends and complain. All the Government offices, elected officials have armed protective services looking after them. We protect our banks and our money. We all cry when children are killed in any way much less senseless slaughter. But, when it came down to the bottom line, all these corrupt, two faced weasels talk about is the high cost of putting armed guards in all schools. Some of the Talk Show Hosts I listen to said that the don't want their children going to school in an armed camp. Ask the parents who lost their "Babies" if they would have spent thousands if it meant saving their child. There are enough retired Cops and Military, who without a doubt, would volunteer their time to make sure this can't happen again. To disarm our population, which is protected by the second amendment, is absurd. Our Constitution holds this right dear, it prevents our leaders from becoming corrupt and placing us under a dictatorship of military government. The truth is that the individuals that speak out against private ownership of firearms would not step forward and put themselves in danger to save anyone. The people that are against law abiding citizens being able to protect and defend themselves are scared pathetic individuals that will call 9-1-1 for you, right after they change their adult Napper Crappers!

I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
