FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

"Merry Christmas" to all my friends and readers!! I know that the last year has been harder than normal for most of us. During the Holidays it is hard to get into the Spirit of the Season. I reflect back on all the good and bad times that I personally have endured. I have to say that in all honesty the "Good" out weighs the "Bad". It is hard not to get sucked up into the ranting and raving of "Idiot Politicians" and the "Loser Liberals" that keep them in office. Maybe we can still hope that the "New Year" will bring a brighter future to us, our families and friends. A thought that I try to hang on to is that even with our differences in opinions, we are all American Citizens. We should all be concerned with our future. If we keep punishing people that are successful we will find out it will end up just as the fable about "Killing the Golden Goose". No one should go hungry, cold or homeless. But, on the other hand if a person does not set forth the effort to change the circumstance in which they find themselves, I say, so be it. I am willing to share from my efforts to give a person a meal or a warm coat. However, make no mistake, my kindness should never be seen as weakness. Politicians are always giving great speeches about how generous we need to be in sharing our money and success with those less fortunate. I say "Practice what you preach" rather than their approach of "Do as I say, not as I do"! The double standard that we live under is not acceptable. I really think that a true and humble leader is seen as such in the eyes of the people he serves. To look down his nose and say "Look how humble I am" is a slap in our face! Call Me! I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
