FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Well I guess some things are just ment to be a do over! I thought that I would get a good jump on this week's editorial. I wrote a good one, saved the files, and when I went to open it, it had disappeared. I know that this weekend was the swearing in for Obama, and that MLK Day he would make the ceremony public, so his fans could attend. I had to think about the last 4 years, really hard, when all the accomplishments were hinted at. We got a health care system, that won't help anyone. No jobs were created in the private sector to speak of. We are going to get saddled with out of control spending by "Big Government", last but not least, we have Armstrong coming clean to Opra! Thank God for that, whew, I have lost sleep over that since the early days of accusations. The Jenner Family had S.W.A.T. show up, thank God for that one. With the new publicity maybe their reality show won't get cancelled. The California streets and highways might finally get repaired. With no new taxes! They will be paid for by charging citizens by the mile, while operating their autos. The only thing that is really on the rise, at the moment, is crime! On the local scene, Brown and his currupt cronies, are now saying how some of the money raised from Prop. 30, needs to be spent on play raises for teachers. John and Ken, on AM 640, said that this would happen months before the election. They will use every nickel they can in places that the money was not intended to be spent. The world has lost it's cumulative mind, and they still have the arrogance to scoff at the Mayan Calender. The world is without doubt coming to an end as we know and preceive it to be. I am going to get a soda and some popcorn and watch the show. It should be a good one!
