FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Today, I could not believe what I heard on Talk Radio. There was a little girl who was expelled from school, for offering to shoot two fellow classmates with a bubble blowing pink child's toy that looked more like a small hair dryer rather than a gun. Next there were several young boys, I would guess, in the 1st or 2nd grade that were expelled and their parents put on notice because they were at recess playing "Cops and Robbers"! Their weapons were nothing more than their fingers and thumbs, and they had the audacity to make shooting noises with their mouths to simulate gun fire. Have we really reached such a low point in our society that now we are after school children and their imaginations, that they are punished? What in the hell are we doing when we allow people in authoritative positions to interfere where there is no harm meant? When I grew up, we went to the Saturday movies to watch Gene and Roy defeat the "Bad Guys" and save the day. We were proud to join their quest and become "Card Carrying Members" of their fan clubs. These men made movies to entertain us and teach us real values and morals to live by. Wait a minute, I know what happened! We have the new heroes to replace them! To name a few, Kim Kardashian, Mikki Minash, Lady GAGA, and the list goes on. That is the example that I want my grandchildren and great grandchildren to emulate! For those of you who are not aware of this fact, I am a Veteran. I am glad that at my age I will not be here long enough to see the final demise of the country that I and others in my age group fought to defend. I am glad that I will not see the day that our citizens are turned into mindless puppets of the Government and forbid to have dreams.
