"FROM THE EDITOR! UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Looks like we managed to make it through another week. I am disappointed at the number of people who think that it is okay to monitor and condemn what we think in our own homes. Obama made it clear that you will be punished for anything you say, think or do in the privacy of your own home. His words, "This will not be tolerated!" Someone needs to remind him that he is only a President, not a King or our Lord and Master. We are indeed on a slippery slope. Our freedom is being taken away a little bit at a time. When it is done so gradually, you really don't see it. The big turning point was when George W. Bush signed the Patriot Act. This gave "Big Government" the ability to prosecute and punish any individual they want without having to charge them with a crime. Under this Act, you have no rights. You can be held till you take your last breath. I don't know about anyone else, but this scares the hell out of me. The more I look around, the more disgusted I become. The younger generation is none the wiser. Toyota is moving their operation to Texas, taking away 3,000 jobs. Gov. Brown addressed this issue by saying that if Toyota can't figure out how to make a profit by paying all the excess taxes and fees demanded by the state of California, then they should move else where. Brown is nothing more than a suck up to the Unions. The state assembly and senate in California is nothing more than a place for the criminals that were elected to office to hang out and plot daily on how to steal more of our earnings. I keep hoping every time I start a new day that I will hear on the news that Brown and quite a few other professional idiots passed away during the night. I personally will be jumping up and down with joy. It is just a matter of time before government bullies will start coming up with laws to be able to arrest us for not following the guide lines that they will publish on acceptable social and political behavior. If you don't follow the rules, Obama will make it a personal issue when he calls out your name on TV and informs the Nation of what a Racist and Bigot you are and how you deserve to have your property, savings and freedom taken away for your sins! CALL ME!!!!
