 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Well, it has been a long time since I received any snail mail. To the retired plumber, that I take was employed by the county, I would have respected your point of view if you had been "Man" enough to sign your name or address or phone number. Also, the misspelled names of the cars you wrote about had me rolling on the floor. Why is my PO Box also the return address on the card? The post card you sent the note on was the cheap one that the P.O. sells for around .50 cents. The only advise I can give you is try to get by the best you can. I realize that with your retirement you can barely make ends meet. K-Mart has a special on little pink balls I think the price is .29 cents each. I recommend that you invest .58 cents plus tax, strap them on, and try to walk like a man! Clinton is crying the blues how her and Slick Willie were broke when the left the White House. Clinton has her, I believe, 2nd book out and has been signing autographs. She is playing coy rather that just be straight out about running for President. Michelle Obama has been saying lately that it is time for the United States to have it's first "Lady President". I mean, after all, that is the least she can do for Hillary. Obama took the lime light away from Hillary in 2008, the Democratic Party turned their back on her cause the "Black Guy" was a better bet! Now I know I just offended someone out there. I know that they feel that a apology is in order. Well, the Hell of it is, I will never allow pressure from Idiots to make me change the way I think, view things or speak. I have that right under the constitution. One day soon, the thought police will be able to monitor even your most private moments. They now have a program through Google. It can use current technology to zero in on one square foot of ground. That means they can read the label on a package of gum. Stupid has become the new Smart. Our country is dumbing down right on schedule. Many times I have suggested that you watch the movie "Idiocracy". We are there without a doubt. At this point in time I personally am waiting for the new season of "The Walking Dead" this fall. Zombies are a reality, that most people put off as science fiction. I can give you proof. Washington D.C. is over run with them!
