"FROM THE EDITOR! UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

You wanted it, you got it! I would like to give 15 minutes of fame to the Snail that called in and professed to know about my personal life than me. Here you go Toad Boy! And remember no one other than yourself is responsible for you having a job. To cry in your beer, that you have been unemployed for 10 years? The economy only went South 6 years ago. I suggest that you quit putting the blame on others. If you can't find work, create your own work. Many have done just that. Oh yeah, they are the ones who are self-employed. Imagine That!!

Now on to real business at hand! The government is looking for individuals to take the illegal immigrant children into their homes. What a way to pass the buck. The only way individuals can afford to do that is if the government is willing to pay to off set the extra cost each month for food, clothes and medical expenses. Our borders have been an issue for many years now, and it looks like it will remain for many years to come. Our nation is still struggling to pull out of the depression that George W. Bush left us with. The last few weeks I have spoken with many business owners. Nothing is really getting better, it is a fight to keep the doors open. Now, they are looking to increase minimum wage to $15.00 per hour for everyone. To do that, most small businesses will have to let some employees go. The cost of goods will have to go up to cover the expense. Then you add in the added expense of "Obamacare", this is a train wreck just waiting to happen. More money is wasted on TV and radio ads everyday trying to get everyone on board with the humanitarian effort. My question is, "Why don't we see politicians jumping at the chance to lead the way"? Is 3.7 Billion dollars really going to solve the issue with the illegal border crossings? I can understand the people that are coming here, looking to improve their lives. There is a widespread problem with Mexico and it's neighbors in Central America with corruption. It has always been corrupt and will always remain corrupt. The only way it will change is for the uneducated citizens to rise up and make the change by force! CALL ME!!
