Hi my name is

FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

The budget has been passed to aid the farmers. If the drought continues they could face hard times, and that, in turn would cause food shortages and higher prices at the grocery store for all of us. The 4.5 Billion Dollars that has been put in place, by our wonderful government, is just part of the 100 Billion Dollars going to FOOD STAMPS. I personally find this to be out of balance. We have more programs in place that have made it more advantageous to go on a Government Assistance Program than to get a job or even inspire a person enough to just look for one. When you ad in the new healthcare that is in place you can be sure that any dream of moving forward in you financial status has been flushed down the toilet. Socialism is a great concept. The only down side is that it will not work. Human nature, is to present programs that sound fair and wonderful. The down side is that the people that present this wonderful concept forget that some one will have to pay for it. I guess, that if I had been in office for 40 years like Waxman, I also would have lost touch with reality!

When a system is put in place to make you think that sitting on your "Ass" instead of actually working, it needs to be thrown in the trash. We are not going to get back the jobs that were lost. Big Business has managed to make it work and show higher profits with a smaller work force. I don't care how much or often Obama tries to bypass Congress, it is still what it is. The news report stated that we are in a recovery and moving forward. I just don't see it. Correct me if I am missing something! Brown just Screwed California Farmers!!! CALL ME!
