FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

This week I've had a hard time deciding which "Stupid Topic" to write about. There are so many things that just totally piss me off. I am about to start drinking again after 34 years of sobriety! The Gays and Lesbians are up in arms because a bakery in Arizona refused to bake a wedding cake for two guys who want to tie the knot. They say that they are being discriminated against. If you own a business you are going to become a target for every "Bull Sheet" group with access to media. I don't think that anyone should be bullied, picked on or threatened. I see their point. They have the right to their opinion. Now, where I have issue is this. Two guys have the right to a Sausage Feast and that is their right. I as an individual have my right not to agree. If in my personal opinion I think that it is immoral, that is my freedom. I will refuse service to anyone or anything that goes against what I feel is right or wrong. I don't need a bunch of "Bleeding Heart Liberals" telling me that everyone other than myself deserve to have their personal belief respected. I have several friends that are Gay or Lesbian and get along well with them when we get together. They respect the fact that I am a straight heterosexual male (for those who aren't sure what that means, I like women). I don't know a thing about their private moments and I don't care if I go to my grave without them sharing any of the details. Everyone needs to have a special person that they can share life with. I understand that completely. I just get "F"ing tired of Government jumping on board with every issue that will further their political careers. I am tired of being told that I have no rights, but I have to respect the other peoples rights and will be punished if I don't! Call Me!!!

I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
