FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Orange County on overwhelm on applications for Concealed Weapons Permits. That amazes me. You would think that with the anti-gun attitude with most of the "Liberal Citizens" of this state that would not be the issue! In a society where only the "Cops" or "Bad Guys" have weapons, the average citizen might just have a fighting chance. I personally feel that an armed society is a polite society. If the ability of the average citizen to carry a gun, concealed or not was bad for public safety in general, why is it that we don't hear about gun fights in Arizona 24/7? There was a point of time a couple of years ago, during the outrage over the Arizona Bill going after illegal aliens, many "Gang Bangers" from Los Angeles move to Kingman, Az. to show all the citizens there that they were no longer in charge of their city. It did not take 6 months and the "Scum" moved back to California. In the smaller cities in Arizona the "Punks" soon found out just about everyone was packing and had better fire power than them. Here in California, Governor Brown passed a bill that Californians can no longer open carry, much less concealed! In the Hi-Desert outer areas. 9-1-1 is nothing more than Dial-A-Prayer. Some potential good news for San Bernardino County, Mr. Paul Schrader is running for Sheriff in 2014 I emailed him to see if I could talk with him about his campaign. I really had doubts about hearing back from him for an interview. To my surprise not only did he agree to speak with me, he also included his phone number to contact him. I liked what he had written on his flyer about his beliefs and his goals. Maybe there will be a "New Sheriff in Town"! He is not part of the system that has been in place since Floyd Tidwell.
