IZZY PET CARE
Personalized in home pet care
Hi my name is Isikuri Iniestra (Izzy), as a pet owner I know what it takes to care for ones pets, but with such busy schedules it's hard sometimes to find the time. That's why I'm here to help! As a certified care taker I'm trained to provide all kinds of service: walking, grooming, pet sitting, transport to appointments. My years of experience is not limited to my own pets. I have worked in animal hospitals and in households dealing with a wide variety of different animals. Let me be the one to make your pet happy.

"True Facts"

By Fred Lundgren CEO of KCAA Radio

A "Buffalo Jump" is a cliff where Native Americans killed bison in mass quantities. They stampeded the bison over cliffs while others waited below to kill the disabled animals with spears and bows.

In economic terms, the same thing is happening to millions of Americans each year. I can't understand why so many Americans support policies that put more buffalo jumps on the economic landscape. I am astonished by the lack of understanding so many people have of the simple math of daily life.

Logically, poverty can't be eliminated by paying millions of people less than a living wage (which is a disincentive to work) yet millions of poor and working class conservatives and libertarians with little or no net worth continue to vote for politicians who refuse to raise the minimum wage.

Logically, prosperity can't be achieved by concentrating so much wealth at the top of the economy that one family has more wealth than tens of millions of Americans, yet cities all over America give multi year tax breaks to every new Walmart Store that opens and then charges higher taxes to their citizens to compensate for the loss, under the illusion that a greater tax base will follow.

Too many times, what follows is the dissolution of local businesses as Walmart takes the independent business profits and better wages out of the local community. Logically, communities can't be improved by building more new prisons that bid for inmates while thinking it's a shorter route to job creation than establishing new technical and higher education schools.

Regardless, California, with a population approaching 40 million people, (a so-called liberal state) and always the canary in the coal mine, has built only one new university campus since 1980 but somehow found the money to build 23 new prisons. If that's a liberal approach to progress, I want no part of it.

That awful statistic is a classic example of the schizophrenia that has overtaken our government's priorities and our American body politic. It is a result of a country getting pulled in the wrong direction. The American economic system appears to be driving full speed ahead on a collision course with its own politically imposed self-destruction, fueled by so-called conservatives (an oxymoron of the highest order), and libertarians who are quick to violate the liberty of others.

It amazes me how poor conservatives with no net worth, or even a negative net worth can cheer lead for the billionaire class, not realizing they are helping to concentrate even more wealth into the hands of the top 1% while insuring financial hardship for future generations of their own families.

These low information voters are creating their own buffalo jump. For reasons I will never understand, they attempt to emulate the viewpoint of the great hunter-gatherers of modern society, under the illusion of gaining their favor, somehow believing their affinity with great wealth will insulate them from the fate of the hunted masses; but when their personal finances go into free fall, it becomes clear that they are nothing but members of the great stampeded herd, hunted down to feed the insatiable desires of the 1%.

The old saying goes, "There are none so blind as those who will not see. The most deluded people are those who choose to ignore what they already know. In political terms, those words speak to the delusional and self destructive thinking of today's working class conservatives and libertarians who are inexplicably determined to help the hunter-puppeteers create more economic buffalo jumps for all of us.

We must not be tricked into electing leaders from within the 1% because too many of them have risen to power because they have closed minds, plugged ears and hardened hearts.

"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Trump, Fiorina and Carson. What do these outsiders have in common? They scare the hell out of the pathetic liberal media and politicians alike. When Trump did not answer the question about Obama being a muslim or being born in the United States, he in my opinion had it right. The only one who knows the truth about Obama, is Obama. When Carson was attacked over his statement about having a muslim as President, he had the right to his view.

When Fiorina, during the debates said, our government and politicians are corrupt, she had it right. The Left is nervous over these individuals not backing down from their statements. Have you ever noticed the people, media or politicians want you to totally accept other individuals view point. Yet, they don't want to respect the fact that the constitution allows you to have your own perspective. Why is that? I listened to several, let's say "Morons" on talk radio. They are blasting anyone who has a different stand than their own. They want to point the finger at these three individuals and call them "Bigots and Racists"! One station that I usually turn off because the two "Idiots" think that it is okay for them to ridicule anyone that makes waves. One is a Latina, and worked for one of the local TV stations. She blasted Dr. Carson for having the nerve to say what he said. She stated that he should have a different opinion on the subject of what is good for the nation. After all, Dr. Carson is Black. She even said that when you listen to him speak, he sounds like he is on drugs! This individual voices her opinion strongly against anyone who is White, in his case Black because he is not bitter over his life. If these "Stupid Media Blow Hards" had to get off their FAT ASS and earn a real living they would probably sing a different tune. They want to keep hatred alive and well. They are like all the others out there that look for donations to represent the poor individuals that have been taken advantage of. If they can keep it stirred up, they don't have to get jobs. I personally think that I will watch the future debates and then decide who I will cast my vote for. I think that Trump is a brawler, not so much a bully that everyone would like you to believe. Carson is a strong man in his convictions. Fiorina is about to show Clinton what a real woman looks like. I would love to see that debate!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! CAT FIGHT!
