FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

A new hat in the ring from the former Gov. from Arkansas, Mike Huckabee. I heard what he had to say about the changes he will make in the way our country is run if he wins the election. I have to say that it is the first time in my life a politician has called it like it is! Term limits is first on his list. He states the problems that are destroying our country are the same people in office for decades, not serving us, making themselves rich. Term limits should have been in place 100 years ago. The corrupt politicians new that they would have a free ride if they could keep us in the dark. They never had anything in mind except their personal gains. Term limits, get rid of the I.R.S., and Obamacare. We will start seeing day light. Then call out the oil companies that with the help of our states government is screwing us at the pump daily. Just drive u p, swipe your card, and bend over. The little bit of a recovery that we were experiencing in the last 6 months is out the window. We will see more increases at the grocery store, in everything that oil touches. I said that we would see the price of regular gasoline over $4.00 a gallon, yesterdaly in Barstow it was $4.39 a gallon at the Shell Station. I might have under estimated, it could reach $5.00 a gallon by summer. Only in California do the oil companies get away with this. We probably have the most crooked politicians in the nation. We are trying to conserve gasoline by buying smaller more efficient cars. The State says that you will be charged by the mile of road use since the tax base dropped. These "Bastards" want their cake, your cake, you neighbors cake and all the ice cream. I am tired of seeing how the working man is abused and kept on the rail. I don't think that we are ever going to demand accountability on where our money goes. One day we will wake up and see that things have gone one of two ways. First, the system completely collapses. Second, we wake up to martial law. Either way the citizens of our country are on the hard end of the stick.
