Trevor's Happy Hour Friday 11/6/2015 EBONY SHOWCASE THEATER with Valerie Stewart about her parents Nick and Edna Stewart.

This Friday on Trevor's Happy Hour our guest will be Valerie Stewart. We will be talking to Valerie about her fathers legacy..... Nick Stewart (the voice of Br'er Bear in Disney's Song of the South/the character Lightnin' in Amos ;n Andy TV show), who with his wife Edna Stewart, founded the historic Ebony Showcase Theatre in 1950. Nick Stewart was an African American actor who founded Los Angeles' Ebony Showcase Theater. He was born Horace Stewart in Harlem, briefly trying his luck at boxing, took to tap dancing, and later made the rounds as a stand-up comic. Stewart used various names, including Nicodemus Stewart, in a career that began in the 1930s and lasted for decades. He made his first movie appearance in 1936's Go West Young Man. The voice he contributed for the character of Br'er Bear in the 1946 animated film Song of the South lives on in Disneyland's "Splash Mountain" ride. But his life's work was with the Ebony Showcase Theater, which he and his wife, Edna, founded in 1950. He started the theater with money he earned playing the janitor Lightnin' on Amos 'n' Andy in the early 1950s. "His life was that theater." Actors such as John Amos, Nichelle Nichols and Isabel Sanford gained early experience in the mid-city theater, which performed shows from the The Odd Couple to No Exit to Carousel. It gave Blacks a chance to play non-stereotypical roles and show them as actors. Sometimes they were all Black casts, other times they were integrated casts. The Black stereotypes of Amos 'n' Andy have long since come under criticism. Of her father's role, Valerie Stewart said he was a pioneer who came up from the streets of New York and it was "a part that was a steppingstone that enabled so many thousands of people to get opportunities." The Ebony Showcase Theatre and Cultural Arts Workshop, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) non profit charity that has helped thousands of people of all ages and backgrounds from 1950 to the present. # "The Truth"

By Fred Lundgren
CEO of KCAA Radio

KCAA on FM

KCAA 1050 AM and 106.5 FM has been achieving quite a bit lately. Listeners on the FM band tuned in to 106.5 FM can now hear KCAA on FM as well as AM. The new FM version went on the air just one month ago. "Finally, KCAA listeners can hear our great programming loud, clear and in stereo on FM. It's been a long time coming and very exciting," says station owner Fred Lundgren. They also anticipate having another station on the air at 106.3 FM by the end of the year. To further add to the station's banner year, KCAA was pleased to learn that their name was among five finalists that were named for the Inland Empire Media Awards for Inland Empire Radio Station of the Year. KCAA's own Erin and Tobin Brinker were also nominated for Radio Program of the Year among stations such as KFRG, KCAL, KVCR and KOLA. The staff was treated to a gourmet banquet this past month at the Mission Inn in Riverside, and were featured during the program. Although they didn't win the coveted prize, they were proud to be nominated among some pretty big names in the nation's 26th largest radio market. Sponsored by the Inland Empire chapter of the American Advertising Federation (AAF-IE), the awards recognize professional excellence and service to the community in a number of media categories for both professionals and college students in 18 categories including Radio or TV station of the year, Newspaper or Magazine of the Year, best Local Website, Best Coverage of a Local News Story, Media Professional of the Year and others. "We've never had an event to recognize the media for their contribution to the public in the Inland Empire," said Mark Landon, Chair of the Media Awards. "The Media Awards are a way to honor their service in our region." KCAA 1050 am and 106.5 FM is Southern California's CNBC Radio Affiliate and prides itself as "The Station that leaves no listener Behind." They provide a variety of talk based, local news, weather financial, information, and entertainment programming with a local emphasis. KCAA is one of just a few stations in Southern California that is a locally owned, and operated radio station. "KCAA has been making major progress this past year, and it was a great big honor to be nominated for these awards. We're so proud of our great local programming and contributions to our local community," said Mark Westwood, Operations Manager of KCAA 106.5 FM and 1050 AM. "It's so gratifying to be recognized as a local radio leader and to see our listenership grow."

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

I hope that everyone had a great Halloween! At one point I could have sworn that I saw Hillary on a turbo charged broom. Now that I have that off my chest, lets get down to the real issue at hand. I had the opportunity to watch the second round of debates last week. Did I imagine it, or did the Liberal Media try to sabotage this event? I like the way all the candidates held their ground and composure. It seemed to rattle the panel when they had the facts thrown in their face. They are all Liberals and would not vote for anyone on the stage. The sadness is that most of the country has been trained to wait for "Big Government" to step in and hand out "Free Trinkets" to the natives! If you don't believe me, ask any "Indian/Native American", how far you can trust the government? I have to say that I was pleased to see the truth come out about our Social Security! There is no shortage, the corrupt government has helped themselves to these funds for several decades. Yes, they only replace these funds with I.O.U.'s. I had to say it was a great moment when the theft by our own government was compared to "Bernie Madoff". Actually, they make Madoff look like Mother Teresa in comparison. If the next President is Hillary Clinton, we will never be able to own a pot to piss in, or a window to throw it out of! Socialism doesn't work. Eventually all the money is spent and the people that earn it are gone. We could end up like Greece. The new budget is a joke. We will never pay our National Debt down, nor will the next 20 generations. It is, as the Mayan Calendar predicted, "The world will end as you perceive it to be. The enlightened will survive, all others will fall by the wayside!" If you think that this will not happen, you are definitely living in a fantasy. If you have bothered to watch the TV series on AMC, The Walking Dead, you will catch a glimpse of what could be in store for our Nation. If you think that our government cares about your well being, you have smoked too much dope! America, stand up, reach down and pull your heads out of your asses! There is no time to waste. The whole world is in trouble and it is not going to get better on it's own. I recomend, just for grins, you get busy and start reading up on survival tactics. You will not see food in the stores, water from faucets, or electric lights. You will only see the dimming light as you close your eyes and fade into history. There will be no future for you or your children.
