TREVOR'S HAPPY HOUR

CALL INTO TREVOR'S HAPPY HOUR This Friday from 3-4PM PST at 888-909-1050 or join us in the chat room at www.trevorshappyhour.com

THIS FRIDAY 11/13 at 3PM PST our guest on Trevor's Happy Hour will be World Series of Poker Champion Todd Witteles. He will be joined by Trevor, Lyle Leslie and interviewed by the one and only Dave Lerman. Dave Lerman has been a huge part of Trevor's Happy Hour as an International Correspondent/Field Producer. Todd Witteles is primarily a cash game player. After four years in poker, he finally entered his first tournament at the 2005 World Series of Poker, where he played the $1500 Limit Texas hold 'em event. He finished in third place out of a field of 1,049 entrants, cashing nearly $116,000. As a gimmick, Witteles used a small Head & Shoulders bottle to protect his cards while playing, in reference to his online moniker "Dan Druff." During the same World Series of Poker, Witteles played the $3,000 Limit Hold 'em event finishing first, earning a World Series of Poker gold bracelet and $347,385. Witteles set a World Series of Poker record, as no other player in history has finished better in their first two events.[1] He was also named CardPlayer Magazine's 2005 World Series of Poker Player of the Year. Everyone listen and please call in THIS FRIDAY from 3-4pm PST at 888-909-1050 FREE FREE or listen online at www.kcaaradio.com. Join us in the chatroom at trevorshappyhour.com Thank You

Efforts Continue To Save "America's Greatest Flag Ship"

This article explores the history of America's greatest Ocean liner and two possible fates that await it. The SS United States crossed the Atlantic for the first time in 1952. Between 1952 and 1969, it carried over one million passengers across the ocean at record speeds. After 800 voyages, it arrived late only twice.

Today, The SS United States is slowly rusting away in a Philadelphia harbor. This greatest of all American Ocean liners will be scrapped unless hundreds of millions of dollars can be raised to restore it.

This incredible 990 foot vessel is to date, the fastest and strongest passenger ship ever built. It was constructed of aluminum inside and above the hull, giving it the best power to weight ratio of any Ocean Liner ever built. Although it symbolized the peace and prosperity of the post WW-2 era, it was designed to be converted into a war vessel, capable of moving an entire division of 15,000 troops into a war zone quickly and efficiently. The SS United States had an incredible top speed of almost 50 mph. It holds the passenger ship record for crossing the "pond" in three days, 10 hours and 40 minutes. Proponents wrote that at full speed, the paint was regularly stripped off its bow. No one knows the ship's exact top speed because reports were often aggregated but we know the ship could easily travel over 40 mph for sustained periods. It was powered by steam turbines that developed 240,000 horsepower. This power was delivered to it's propellers by four, super-sized spinning shafts. This type of ship was called a "screw steamer" which explains the "SS" designation preceding the ships name. It 65 years of age, the SS United States remains 92% intact below the water line but time and salt water are a constant threat. In my opinion, there is one living American who has the moral authority to raise the public's consciousness regarding the importance of restoring this ship. He is a former Navy Lieutenant and President of the United States, Jimmy Carter.

Surely, there must be some way to save our ship! Here is a link to the conservancy that has prevented it from getting cut up into scrap. See www.ssusc.org.

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

The attacks in Paris have everyone it the political and media rattling the sabers again. Obama was said to have used "Strong Language" in condemning the terrorists! I bet that had the terrorist shaking in their boots! The problem that the western world is facing, is the "Bad Guys" don't give a "Rat's Ass" about rules in warfare! The Geneva Convention means nothing to them. We use the cover story "We will not lower ourselves to their tactics", the truth is we don't have the guts to show them that they "Screwed with the wrong people"! As long as we let the social and political crap continue, we will see more attacks. It is only a question of when, not if, before they hit us again in the U.S.. Why are we not brave or smart enough to us their own tactics against them. To the "FOOLS", that have the position of we live by a higher standard, your own lack of bravery will be your own down fall. The "Bad Guys" are going to "Cut off your head, probably after they have you watch them "cut off the heads of you wife and children. That is if you are that lucky! More than likely, you will be caged, put on public display, have gasoline poured on you, then set on fire. When was it, that we settled for getting our "Asses Kicked" by scum? When did Americans, in general, decide that we would roll over for anyone? This moment started back in the mid 1960's. When the Atheist, Madalyn O'Hair, won her case in the "Supreme Court" and had prayer removed from the classrooms across the nation. We let a group of old, tired, farts, dictate what we as a nation will do. When they got the nation to go along with this, it was a sure sign for the corrupt government to have the go ahead on the rest of our values being diluted. What was once considered a crime, is now hailed in our society. We no longer have control of our families values, or our daily activities. George Bush is the reason that the world is going to hell! We don't have the brain power to see clearly. We have been blinded by social and political correctness. We don't want to upset anyone, or have our neighbors looking down on us. We are going to be our own downfall. We will not see the truth until it is in our face, up close and personal. Our way of life will be written in history as the weak, pathetic, losers, that thought kindness and understanding would win over our enemies. If I had my way, I'm sure there is still some Napalm left from Viet Nam, I would burn them off the face of the planet. No one would ever test our determination again!
