ON AIR: TREVOR'S HAPPY HOUR WITH LYLE FENIMORE EVERY FRIDAY 3-4pm www.kcaaradio.com

This Friday December 4th on Trevor's Happy Hour will be our guest Joan Steiger from 3-4pm "I'm still learning after all these years," says Joan Benedict Steiger. Even after a prolific career spanning stage, screen, and television – and inspiring romances with three devoted men – the veteran actress still finds each role a new challenge to experience and new terrain to explore. A dancer from childhood, Joan forged a career in show business as an actress in the early days of television, where she made notable appearances on shows like the original "Candid Camera" and "The Steve Allen Show." Dozens of television and film appearances later, including memorable stints on "General Hospital" and "Days of Our Lives," she's still dedicated to all facets of her craft, having appeared in numerous stage productions, from the classics to modern comedies to her acclaimed solo shows ("Leona," about Leona Helmsley, and her autobiographical "The Loves of My Life.") Off-screen, Joan's life has been equally charmed. Her first husband was stage veteran John Myhers, with whom Joan spent thirty years before his passing. Then, Joan was reunited with Academy Award-winning actor Rod Steiger; the two had known each other when Joan was a star-struck ingénue and Steiger the industry's hottest young performer. Now, decades later, their romance was rekindled, and the couple married, working together and supporting each other until the actor's death in 2002. Then Joan fell in love with veteran television actor Jeremy Slate, and the two spent several years together before his death. "They all passed away from different forms of cancer, so it's bittersweet," says a pensive Joan today. "But they were three of the greatest guys in the world."

Today, Joan immerses herself in every acting opportunity, including an appearance on Fox's "Dollhouse," a starring role in the feature "Dead Border," and upcoming roles in the films "Opus To An Angel" and the action/comedy "Thou Shalt Not Steal." She was awarded the "Eternity Award" for "lifetime achievements that have made a lasting contribution to the world of theatre" recently at the Los Angeles Women's Theatre Festival. She has also written her memoir, "Brooklyn Baby," a Hollywood insider's amazing journey through love, loss, and laughter which will be out this spring. Her fascinating story is filled with some of the highest highs and lowest lows that life can offer. "Brooklyn Baby" is a fascinating story guaranteed to inspire its readers and challenge all of us to follow our dreams. Remembering the past with no regrets, she looks forward to a future of even more accomplishment. Call in at 888-909-1050

"The Truth"

By Fred Lundgren
CEO of KCAA Radio

KCAA on FM

As our nation mourns those who were killed in San Bernardino, we should remain steadfast in the hope that eventually, violence in all its manifestations can be purged from our planet. Since the San Bernardino massacre, Americans have come to realize that stopping radicalized muslims from bringing their failed culture of violence and madness to America must be a priority.

Americans of all political stripes are realizing that it can't be done unless moderate muslims take the lead. Their religion must go through a worldwide reformation and by involving ourselves in their civil wars, we simply cause all warring factions to direct their violence at us.

In his Sunday night address from the White House, President Obama finally said it. He said that muslims must purge violence from their own ranks and they must do so without excuses. He made it clear that the silence of moderate muslims is passive acceptance and their passiveness is no longer acceptable. A timeless recognition of the difference between American culture and so many failed cultures can be found in the book Adventures of a Bystander (Harper and Rowe, 1978) written by the late Peter Drucker. Drucker quotes the late Pastor J. E. Rydback of the Lutheran Church of Minneapolis, who voiced the following admonition to his congregation on December 7th 1941, the day the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor.

Let us remember that the forebears of everyone here came to this country to get away from the incessant wars, the insane hatreds, and the sinful pride of other nations. Let us remember that the forebears of everyone here hacked a farm out of the howling wilderness amid blizzards in the winter and sandstorms in the summer, so as to live as free men and women, innocent of the wickedness and folly of national honor and tyranny of government disguised as military glory. Let us remember that the forebears of every one of us came to build a new nation subservient to laws rather than to men. Let us pray that this cup will pass us by and that America will remain the last best hope, and not succumb to being just another entry in the long and vain list of empires.

Let's remember Pastor Rydback's message as we mourn those lost and we seek the renewal the hope that Christmas symbolizes.

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Well by now everyone has heard the news about "Terrorism" hitting in our own back yard. As the story was breaking, not one of our great protectors had guts enough to call it what it is. Local, Federal and even our wonderful President, Barrack Obama would not admit we were hit. The story about a disgruntled employee just would not fly, even though the powers that be kept pushing it. Syed Farook, did not leave the party in an aggravated or upset mood. He was high on adrenaline knowing what was going to happen when he and his wife returned to the party. This attack, right from the beginning, was planned out for months in advance. The F.B.I. stated that the individuals, Farook and his wife Malik, were in contact with suspects that were being monitored by the Fed's? If that were truly the case, why is it the Federal Government did not have this pair of individuals on their radar? My assessment is simple. The "Federal Government" does not want the citizens of this country to understand just how venerable we truly are. They know, that with this incident, the number of people who will go and buy firearms for protection will be in record numbers. Brown, is so worried about "Global Warming", so is Obama, that they have stated that it is a higher threat to us than I.S.I.S.. The media is pounding on Trump for his belief about taking down the bad guys before they can strike us again! Personally I have stated what I would do as Commander and Chief of the Armed Forces! Trump wants any refugee's that come here to be on a list. I agree. There is only the need for one or two infiltrators to attack again and kill possibly hundreds of citizens in the future. The Federal Government says to be watchful and vigilant, and report any suspicious activities. Well, the "Social and Political Correctness Crowd" will not stand still for that. The neighbors that were interviewed, after all was said and done, did not want to come across as racists or bigots. We, with this attitude, will be our own down fall. The extremists know that they have the upper hand when it comes to striking at us. We are playing by rules that were set in place decades ago. They don't use any rule book. They make up the plays as the need to, to fit the circumstance. To strike where no one will be on guard and be enjoying events that keep their attention on anything except their surroundings. We have no idea how many sleeper cells have already made it to our shores, or are converted American Citizens!
