FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

What do the numbers 1865, 1965. 258,000 and 19% have in common? The answer is plain as Black and White. The war between the states, The Civil War, ended in April of 1865. The loss of life to bring an end to Slavery cost the Union Troops approximately 258,000 lives. At that we still had a long way to go to push for equality. On March 7, 1965 it was a day that went down in history as "Black Sunday". Now I guess you are wondering what the number 19% signifies? Well if you listen to individuals talk about that day and the blood bath that followed you still don't have the answer. This is the forgotten group of brave individuals that history has chosen to sweep under the rug. Obama, Jackson, Sharpton and other "Racists" will never honor or give credit to. 19% was the number of "White Citizens" that marched over that bridge that fateful day. In 1965 the South was ready to explode. Hatred for the Black movement was mild compared to the hatred that was unleashed on the White Citizens that showed their bravery and courage to march with the group lead by Martin Luther King Jr.. These people were threatened, beaten, property destroyed and in some cases lost their lives for what they believed in. Equality for all! Their heroic effort gets ignored by so called leaders today. As a nation we still need to improve. This will not be accomplished as long as we have "Racists" spewing their hateful words as though it were Gospel. Hasn't anyone figured out that people like Jessie Jackson and Al Sharpton need to keep the pot at a boil and stir up emotions to keep donations coming in? If they don't let it rest, we will never see true equality in our nation. These self serving "Bastards" would have to get off their dead asses and find a job. Hatred has made them prosperous. Obama is the "King of the Heap" and a "Joke"! Do you think that when he is out of office in less than 2 years he and his family will find a nice house to purchase, "In The Hood"?
