FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

I wonder what Walt Disney would say if he were still alive today? As we all know, Disney Studios has many hits. Years ago they pioneered animation. In 2013 they had a big hit with the young girls called "Frozen". The main character was Elsa. She is basically alone, with no love interest. That in it's self is a bit unusual for a Princess. Now they are talking about making the sequel, Frozen 2. In this one, there are rumors that Elsa will have a love interest. This is the part that I am having trouble with. They are kicking around the idea of Elsa coming out of the closet. Yes, that is what I said, closet. They think that it is appropriate for her to be a lesbian. Now, I don't think that anyone should get harassed or bullied, but on this one I am really coming to a full boil. The main audiance for this film, more or less, are young girls from the ages of 3 years to around 14 years old. Do you really think that they are really ready to be exposed to a film that presents homosexuality as normal? Or are they really being introduced to experimenting with sexuality. I take a hard stand on this. You can try to make everything that is different acceptable, but when you erase the line that separates good and bad behavior or choices in life and label it acceptable you are heading for a train wreck. Our children will figure out what their sexual orientation will be on their own. To plant the thought that it is ok to be with a man or a woman or both crosses the line. Our moral fiber is stretched so thin that it is ready to snap. If Disney does decide to walk on the wild side with the sequel, as parents we should have the guts to not send our children to see it. Has the nation and world really crumbled to the point that sane thought is just a faded memory from the distant past. I know that our children need guidance and love at home. If your child grows up and comes home someday and has the talk with you, that is fine. To plant thoughts that it is okay to swing either way is acceptable is one of the worse things that you could ever do to your child. I know several gay and lesbian individuals that I respect as individuals. I don't really understand where they are coming from and I can go to my grave without the in depth details. I don't know about their love life and prefer to keep it that way. What you do as an adult is your business. As a child, it is the parents business. You can be there to help them with questions about their feeling, just don't muddy the water when the haven't even reached puberty!
