FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

What can I say about the latest rounds over emails? It just gets better and better like a sharp cheese! People wonder why Hillary Clinton doesn't dump Huma Abedin. Most say that is because she has been the right hand of Clinton for several years. I think that she might regret not having made space between them with the Wild Weiner flying around! Can you believe 650,000 emails? That has to be a world record. Hillary's voice was a little on the ruff side when she made her address on Saturday over the released information from the F.B.I.. I bet there was hell to pay over that one. Huma Abedin has taken herself off the radar. She will stay in hiding until after the election results next Tuesday. I have a feeling that there is more to their relationship other than work and the fact that both of them married men who have a hard time keeping the Stallion in the Barn!!! You know the Lizard on a Leash! With the last two references I made, I'm sure there were some gasps and maybe a few laughs! Personally, I think Clinton should back out of the election and start planing her defense. The corruption is in you face and yet there are her supporters that are still willing to drink the kool aid for her. This woman, and I'm being generous when I call her that, is out only for herself. She will see every man, woman and child on the sacrificial alter to place her as President. This woman is evil, dangerous and destructive, and those are her better qualities! If she looses to Trump, you'd better bet, that her head will explode before she would ever congratulate him for the win. The office of President is bigger than any single individual. People like the Clinton's, Obama's and the rest of the bottom feeders don't really seem to get it. The people are rising up and demanding answers this time.

We will have our change in government, or we will have their heads on a pike!
