KCAA on FM

All the way with KCAA! Let Loose and Howl on Friday and Saturdays at Midnight on 1050 am and 106.5 FM...

With the start of a new year, KCAA is bringing some exciting new programming to its airwaves. Last month the station started the Stephanie Miller Program on weekday afternoons at 4pm. "We're excited to bring some younger voices to the talk arena too," says Fred Lundgren, station owner. Every Tuesday at 6 pm the station hosts the Bryan Blue Show, a show about everything from politics to sports and everything in between. You can find out more info at www.BryanBlue.com

Following suit, KCAA station manager Mark Westwood says that weekends are also going to be a howling good time on 1050 AM and 106.5 FM. "I've got some big news, and the Nickel Shopper is the first to get it," says Westwood. "We have just come to an agreement with the syndicators of the Wolfman Jack show." Starting at the end of February, KCAA will carry the Wolfman on Friday and Saturday Nights from Midnight to 4 am. This is a perfect fit, says Westwood, with our Sunday afternoon and evening oldies music shows, our listeners can tune in and hear their favorites delivered by one of the greats from a much more easy going era where no one had ever heard of terrorists or 911. "It's like comfort food for your ears," says Westwood. Wolfman is possibly the best personality DJ there ever was," says station owner Fred Lundgren. He remarks that the Wolfman inspired him to get into radio. Famous for his gravelly voice, The Wolfman was born Robert Weston Smith. It was at KCIJ in Shreveport, Louisiana that he first began to develop his famous alter ego Wolfman Jack. Later the Wolfman took his act to the border and broadcast from the transmitter site of XERF-AM at Ciudad Acuña in Mexico, a station whose high-powered barn burner signal could be picked up across much of the United States. In an interview with writer Tom Miller, Wolfman Jack described the reach of the XERF signal: "We had the most powerful signal in North America. "Birds dropped dead when they flew too close to the tower. A car driving from New York to L.A. would never lose the station." Most notably the Wolfman is remembered as the dedication DJ on American Graffiti, the movie that inspired the vastly popular TV show Happy Days. Just like Antenna TV has brought back the old Johnny Carson Shows, we're bringing back the Wolfman. Radio in the Inland Empire just got better, and it's right here says Fred Lundgren, owner of KCAA 1050 AM and 106.5 FM. The Wolfman did pitches for dog food, weight-loss pills, weight-gain pills, rose bushes, and baby chicks. There was even a pill called Florex, which was supposed to enhance one's sex drive. "Some zing for your ling nuts," the Wolfman would say. Ironically Wolfman broadcast on NBC Affiliate 1090 at the height of his career. It's kind of cool that we are associated with the Peacock too, and a CNBC radio affiliate at 1050 am. It's kind of like the Wolfman is coming home. And KCAA is extending it's live programming on weeknights into the 8 pm hour with the addition of such shows as "Comics Life" Fridays from 6 pm to 7 pm. Nothing is sacred from the fun on this two hour show hosted by a panel of professional, working Los Angeles area comics. Also on it's way into the line up is the Pyschic Love Doctor from 8pm to 9 pm on Friday nights. Cali's Best Music joins the music show line up on Thursdays at 8pm. The show will feature independent hip hop and live dj's from around Southern California. And for those who like Jazz, they won't be disappointed. Two hours of straight ahead Jazz with Tommy Hawkins, followed by Radio Deluxe, a jazz show hosted from Chicago by John Pizzarelli is in the new line up. After 10 years, the station has said good bye to Denny Ferrell's Big Band show, and the Sounds of Sinatra will be filling in until the Wolfman starts at the end of February. Westwood says KCAA will work to find a permanent home for The Sounds of Sinatra once a full time sponsor has been found for that show too. If you miss one of these great shows, not to worry, you always can find out updates, info as well as a real time schedule of the shows and their podcasts at KCAARadio.com It's like Radio On Demand says Lundgren, you can listen to your favorite show any time. One of the station's monikers is; KCAA, Where every day is a great day!."

FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Last week when I wrote about Hillary and the 2 top secret files, I was wrong. Turns out they found 22 files. Why in the world are we still letting the Clinton's get away with murder. There are stories about many people that have died or disappeared for one reason or another that had some connection with that family. Nothing has ever been proven, or brought forward about it. So I guess it is just rumor! The Trumpster is still rolling along with his strategy. It seems to work very well for him. The fact that Trump did not attend the last debate has the media feeling tough. I don't blame Trump for his action. I think that the "Bleached Blond Bimbo" was indeed looking to pick a fight. I wonder why people who throw the first rock get upset when Trump shows up with a truck load of "Bricks" and drops the whole load on them. I think the moral of this story, is to be smarter than the "Brick"! I have had many individuals who read the editorial ask me the same question. "Why do we allow the trash that is in office to walk all over our rights?" I have a friend who emails me a couple times a week. He sends really great quotes from some very famous people in history. I think that some of the corruption that we have let get out of control was also something that they had to deal with. The first one I will share is from Winston Churchill. "I contend that for a nation to try to tax itself into prosperity, is like a man standing in a bucket and trying to lift himself up by the handle!" Second quote I will share is really the biggest issue we are facing today with all the social and political correctness that is being shoved down our throats. "When half of the people get the idea that they do not have to work, because the other half is going to take care of them, and the other half get the idea that it does no good to work, because somebody else is going to get what they have worked for, that is the beginning of the end of any nation!" With these words I will leave you a little food for thought! It might be only a matter of a couple years before we have gone over the edge. The point of no return is in our faces. We don't wish to offend anyone or group, we rather stand by and say nothing! We will never balance a budget. We will never have equal wealth. We will never be free from government telling us what to say, do, when to eat or sleep. And everyone thought that "1984" never happened and was only a fictional writing!
