FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

I would like to thank all of my "Fans" for the great support for Unspoken Thoughts. It has been a few months since I last wrote to you. Even without my sarcasm and wit you managed to survive! It is getting to that time of year when the people need to decide who they want at the helm of the ship we call our "Destiny". The Republicans are digging in, and ready to change us back to a steady course to financial freedom and independence. The Democrats are digging in, this week, and ready to change us back to a steady course to financial freedom and independence. About the only thing that I am getting out of all the TV ads that are running, is that I am more confused now than I was 6 months ago. Everyone says that their plan is the right one for our nation. Our way of life. I wonder if any of the Politicians ever really think about the average citizen and what is like to walk a day in his or her shoes. All over the world people seem to have become disillusioned and seem to have lost enthusiasm to reach their goals. I wonder what would happen if all of a sudden politicians all agreed on a matter and actually put a plan of action in place to protect our way of life and livelihood? I have not seen anyone at this point in time that really shows me anything other than more of the same policies, just phrased a little differently. With all the natural disasters that we are facing right now, from fires in the west to floods in the south, that we have any time to really sit and analyze what we are being told. I would like to see someone actually come forward with a plan of action that really looks after the interests of the "American Citizens". I am more in control of my thoughts this time round, and I hope to give you food for thought to help you make a clear decision in the next election.

I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
