FROM THE EDITOR!
 "UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

I'm sure that everyone has seen the ads on TV and heard them on radio about Prop. 32. The ads against the Prop. 32 are saying that it will benefit the Big Oil Companies, and others in that category that have bought the Politicians in Sacramento. In all actuality, the people that are against this Prop. 32 are the teachers unions. If this Prop. 32 passes, they will no longer be able to take money from the union members and use it to back or fight anyone or anything without each members approval. They at this point in time have spent 5 times the money to fight and keep this from passing. The unions in this state own Sacramento and they do as they please. They defeated the Bill that would make it easier to fire teachers accused of sexually molesting students. Now if you take a close look at many of the Bills that Gov. Brown signs or vetoes, you will see that nothing is going to change that is of any benefit to the citizens of California. I would like to give a shout out to the readers that have called in about my editorial being back. I thank you. Many times I have tried to inform you about what I see happening and how we are being abused. I am only one voice, and alone, can change nothing. It is up to the citizens of this state to take back the control and get the politicians in line to do their jobs. I see that Arnold is trying to make a comeback in the movie industry. Mayor Villariagosa, is trying to keep in the lime light. Since he is termed out, he is hoping that with a lot of sucking up he will land a position in Washington, D.C. with Obama. That is only if Obama gets reelected. We are in for a great show once the debates get started in a couple of weeks. I have my soda and popcorn ready. The truth is, I think that we are in for more hard times.

I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
