FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
 The ads are hitting hard and heavy to defeat many of the Propositions that will make Government tighten the purse strings. From my point of view, it is a no brain'er to figure out what not to vote for. Any ads that are paid for by the unions or teachers associations vote NO. They are just trying to climb in your pocket. Any Propositions that they are against, vote YES! The ones to really watch are the ones that Sacramento and Brown are indorsing, these will take more money from you household to do absolutely nothing but pad the pockets of the unions. After the first debate between Romney and Obama, Obama came back swinging. It was funny to watch, reminded me of a verbal altercation in a bar when one person leaves and then the other person starts talking his guff about what will happen the next time he gets talked to that way. To little, to late. It is easy to get gutsy when the other person is no longer there to answer back to you. This administration in the last 4 years has done nothing to create jobs. Obama, speaks well and has a charm. I would like to go to a BBQ with him, hammer a few beers and swap jokes. I bet it would be great times. As a President and the leader of the greatest country in the world, he falls short. I am tired of hearing about with 4 more years he can make a difference. I finally figured out what he meant first time he ran, "Hope and Change", still applies. "I Hope I left enough Change in your pockets, because I going to need what you have left to cover things for another 4 years." The Rich Liberals are helping to raise money for his reelection, they feel that redistribution of wealth is the answer. I don't see any of them saying that they are going to empty their bank accounts for redistribution, if the do, I will redistribute my money also.
I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
