FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
 I am sitting hear listening to the results on the election.
 It is Tuesday evening 7:00 pm. You will be reading this on Thursday Nov. 8th. It is a real horse race, and many people are hoping that their man wins. Obama isn't leading like he thought he would. Romney is holding his own.
 Locally the results seem to be business as usual in California, with all the newly registered voters, most of them students, hold on to your wallets. Prop. 30 looks like it is going to pass. I love it when the same people that put Brown back in office are now giving him free rein on our hard earned money. I enjoyed the commercials about how we are 47th on spending on education in this state. Correct me if I am wrong, but, I thought that the Lottery was going to solve all the economic problems in our schools.
 Like always, this money is being diverted to other projects that have nothing to do with education. I have to say that unless the citizens in this state start using their heads for something other than keeping their ears separated nothing in going to change. San Bernardino has filed BK. and if things keep on track it wont be long before California does the same. We have let the Fox control the Hen House and wonder why there are no eggs. I miss the days when we had the right to control our individual lives and set our goals. Dreams came true. We knew with hard work we could reach the American Dream. Now, at best, we might be able to rent a movie on Friday night and pretend that it is our lives. I would like to see someone as President that actually knows what it is like to have a job, run a business, save up for that rainy day. I would like to see a country where families raise their children without government interference. I now really understand the concept of "The Good Old Days!"
