FROM THE EDITOR!

"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"

Thanksgiving is today, and I hope that everyone enjoys this time with family and friends. It has been a very trying year for all of us. Personally, it has been a year of perseverance. I have to keep telling myself, that no matter how slowly things are moving forward, it is still moving forward. The thing that I don't understand, is on the news this week, Obama is jetting around the globe traveling to places that American Presidents have never been. I sure am glad that he has the time and money to do that. Oh, wait a minute, he has our money to travel with. I mean, after all, he took care of the flooding on the East Coast single handed!! The Governor of New Jersey strolled with him before the election, everything has to be good. I would like to know, what ever happened to the promise of taking care of the job situation? I guess I should not panic, he is the President, and I'm sure that things will be milk and honey as soon as he returns. The other thing that I still am in disbelief over is the 18,000 people who just lost their jobs at Hostess. What in the world was the union and union members thinking when they pulled this stunt? I think that if you are not happy where you are working, and if the pay is not what you dreamed it would be, then find another line of work. For the Bakers Union to strike and not inform the other unions to their plan and proceed forward with a stubborn arrogant attitude is unreal! I wonder if these people were on drugs! This is not the economy to go off half cocked and think that you have the upper hand in business. If I were one of the employees that these idiots just put out of work, I think that I would file a petition to get them all committed at a mental health facility and put on suicide watch!

I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902
