FROM THE EDITOR!
"UNSPOKEN THOUGHTS"
I would like to hear your thoughts 760-298-0902

Iowa has the nation holding their breath, what do you think they will decide? I saw on the morning news some of the Iowa Citizens being interviewed, I really did not see anything other than nice people who really don't have anymore idea of what is happening than anyone else in the nation. They are simply the first in line to make a stab at it. I see that it really is upsetting to media and politicians that for the first time that I can remember, Ron Paul is actually getting media coverage. I realize that he is not considered to be electable against Obama, but I think that more people need to listen closer to his message. It is simple, get rid of professional politicians, quit being the police of the world, which in my opinion is a joke. We only get involved in regions where there is a profit to be made. We let the poor blacks in Dafur get butchered, raped and God knows what else, because they have nothing to offer. We are not really the great savior that we like to project to the world. Our greed in every thing we do is plan for the rest of the world citizens to see. That is why American Citizens are in danger through out the world, the corruption in our government. I will say that we indeed do have the best government that money can buy. Ask any politician. Locally, they are finally getting to the facts that the "Great High Speed Rail System" is under funded, not going to make a profit and will be just another fluke the "Good Old Boys in Government" can use to skim mor money to their friends and personal accounts. In Government this is standard procedure. Everybody is out to see how much they can get. We are the ones that get the bill month after month. I personally think that we (The American People) have met the requirements for insanity. Insanity, is when you keep doing the same thing over and over again hoping and expecting a different result. I am still pushing to get the truth about the so called mortgage melt down. I have been in contact with a real heavy hitter. I know that this person has the guts it takes to see things through. I will not go into any deep details as of yet. I am looking forward to being the fly in the ointment, the squeak in the wheel. You know the rest, "yippee kay yeah!". I really like that line in the movie "Die Hard". Well now on a happier note. The new year is here and so far so good. I know it has only been a couple of days, but good is good. The German National that they caught quickly for starting all the fires in the L. A. area was excellent. I just had a hard time with Mayor Tread Head Villariagosa being on camera attempting to talk knowledgably on what a great job the police had done. In reality, it was the sharp eyed volunteer officer who saw the culprit and succeeded in pulling him over. I will have more next week as the candidates for the Republican nomination gets heated up. As I write, they are saying on the news that Ron Paul is giving Romney a run for his money. I really do think that as a whole the nation is starting to wake from it coma and realize that while we were asleep the Fox has indeed been raiding the hen house. Take care and God Bless!
